

Building a Museum

Kalamunda History Village

First house in Kalamunda –
Stirk Cottage

Save Stirk Cottage

Formation of Kalamunda & Districts Historical Society

1969

Kalamunda Railway Station 1920's

First station building with station master and staff.

Afternoon train arrival from Midland

Railway Station, Kalamunda, W.A.

New station building Built 1927

After the Zig Zag Railway was closed.

Now a bus station in the sixties.

Village Loco G118.
Previous life working in Marble Bar.

G118 in Midland railway yard

Next to Kalamunda Library after Shire acquisition.

Moved to History Village.
Removing boiler cladding.

Asbestos Removal 2019

Move to stand for enclosing in HazMat suit.

Here we are in 2020

Ellis Cottage in original position in Kalamunda
Built 1909

Moving Ellis Cottage to the Village
1993

Ellis Cottage
today as our Administration Centre

Kalamunda
Primary School in School Street Moved to Heath Rd
1905

Moving the school to History Village
1970

School in the Village

Kalamunda
Post Office in Railway Road

Post Office
staff

Post office moving past Kalamunda
Hotel 1975

Almost here

Old Post Office in the Village

Chambers House in Kalamunda

Moving Chambers House to the Village

Still Moving.

Chambers House in the Village
moved to HV in 1991

McCullough Cottage with first Kalamunda
Post Office
in Railway Road.

Moving
McCullough
Cottage
1980

Moving the original McCullough
Cottage
post office
building

Old Post Office building in position at entrance to the Village

McCullough Cottage and old post office in Village

Opening of the Orchard Shed 1998

Orchard Shed
today

Village workshop with vintage garage front 1997

The Whim is on loan from WA Museum

Blacksmith Shed 1992

Carriage Shed 1988

Memorial Building
with Pat's Bus

